Subject New Course of Study: English 4 - Deconstructing Race (Action)

Type Action

Recommended Action Staff recommends the Governing Board approve the New Course of Study for English 4 - Deconstructing Race.

A collaborative team of AUHSD English teachers developed a course of study for the new course English 4: Deconstructing Race. English 4: Deconstructing Race is available to grade 12 students as an English elective course that satisfies the fourth year of English graduation requirement. The course is based on the California Common Core State Standards for English Language Arts and will utilize the list of skills identified in the English 4 Course of Study. The thematic focus on the course will be on race and cultural identity, the history of racism in America, social impacts of structural racism and critical race theory.

Staff recommends the Governing Board approve new Course of Study: English 4: Deconstructing Race.
