Description:

- This modification to the contract and extension will accommodate training for additional participants and extend the training program for one year. The increased cost is requested for continued support of senior staff as well as training support for school-based staff, members of curriculum and instruction, business services, and communications. These services will allow the system to institute and maintain BCPS' own diversity and equity training over the coming years.
- The contract will provide coaching and consulting, as well as tools and protocols essential in advancing the system's ability to provide services and support to its diverse student population.
- An evaluation of this year's efforts will include a mixed method reporting of the impact of training on individual, professional, and organizational capacity. Evaluation results will be available through the Department of Research, Accountability, and Assessment at the conclusion of the 2015–2016 academic year.
