

Eliminating Institutional Bias: How New Montgomery County Public School Data and Critical Race Theory Could Help

Monday, November 22, 2021, 7:00 p.m. EST Webinar

PRESENTERS

DR. MONIFA B. MCKNIGHT – Interim Superintendent, Montgomery County Public Schools

MR. BYRON JOHNS – Chair, NAACP of Montgomery County, Maryland Chapter's Education Committee and Parent's Council

JANEL A. GEORGE, JD – Director, Racial Equity in Education Law and Policy Clinic at Georgetown University

Racial and ethnic disparities are evident throughout Montgomery County Public Schools - from reading levels, participation in higher level classes, graduation rates, suspension and discipline rates, and staff. Learn about parental concerns and related advocacy. Find out how the leadership of Montgomery County Public Schools is responding to this crisis. Discover the role that "critical race theory" could play in addressing this issue. An opportunity for Q&A will follow the presentations.

Register here

E: lwwmc@erols.com | T: 301.984.9585 | lwwmocomd.org

Notice of Recording, Filming & Photography: When you enter a League of Women Voters (LWV) event or program, either in person or online, you enter an area where photography, audio and video recording may occur. All attendees consent to LWV's use of these recordings, including their voices, images, and photos, unless they notify us at the time of the event.

This event will be recorded and posted on our YouTube channel.