OUR KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Shamari Reid

Shamari Reid often describes himself as an ordinary BlackGay cisgender man from Oklahoma with extraordinary dreams. Currently, that dream involves finishing his doctoral work in Curriculum & Teaching at Teachers College, Columbia University. Before starting at Teachers College, he completed a B.A. in Spanish Education at Oklahoma City University and an M.A in Spanish and TESOL at New York University. He has taught Spanish and ESL at the elementary, secondary, and post secondary levels in Oklahoma, New York, Uruguay, and Spain.

Currently, he teaches undergraduate and graduate courses on Urban Education, Teaching Developmental Reading, and Literacy, Language, and Culture at CUNY-Hunter College. His research interests include Black youth agency and transformative teacher education. Shamari's dissertation explores BlackQueer youth agency in NYC's ballroom scene. You can find out more about Shamari and engage with his writing on his website, shamarireid.com
