Let's celebrate all that
we've learned!

Racism

Being mean to someone because of the color of their skin.

What is the Black Lives Matter Movement?

The movement is a group of activists from all around the world.

This group of people believe that violence and racism is wrong.

RESTORATIVE JUSTICE

We know that if you knock down someone's block building, you have to help them rebuild it, you can't just say, "Sorry," and walk away. We also know that it's important for kids to be able to make a better choice another time, and it's grownups' job to help them make better choices and to give them chances to do that.

LOVING ENGAGEMENT

Art by Caryn Davidson Text by Laleña Garcia

It's so important to make sure that we are always trying to be fair and peaceful, and to engage with other people (treat other people) with love. We have to keep practicing this so that we can get better and better at it. Another way to say that is loving engagement.

Different people do different things and have different feelings. It's so important that we have lots of different kinds of people in our community and that everyone feels safe.

Globalism means that we are thinking about all the different people all over the world, and thinking about the ways to keep things fair everywhere.

Everybody has the right to choose their own gender by listening to their own heart and mind. Everyone gets to choose if they are a girl or a boy or both or neither or something else, and no one else gets to choose for them.

COLLECTIVE VALUE

Everybody is important, and has the right to be safe and happy, no matter what they believe, where they are from, or who they love. Another way to say that is collective value.

It's important that we have spaces where people of different ages
can come together and learn from each other.

There are lots of different kinds of families;
what makes a family is that it's people who take care of each other; those people might be related, or maybe they choose to be family together and to take care of each other. Sometimes, when it's lots of families together, it can be called a village.

There are some people who think that women are less important than men. We know that all people are important and have the right to be safe and talk about their own feelings.

There are lots of different kinds of people and one way that we're different is the color of our skin. It's important to make sure that all people are treated fairly, and that's why we, and lots of other people all over the country and the world are part of the Black Lives Matter movement.
