

Equity and Inclusion Lesson Plans

Aligns with WV Dispositions and Standards for Student Success

Personal and Social Development: Respect Yourself and Others
Student Success Standards	Searching for a specific, robust, ready to use classroom lesson on topics of diversity, social justice, and multiculturalism which also reinforces critical and socio-emotional learning skills? Then visit Teaching Tolerance , Zinn Education Project , or ADL websites which provide teachers with a vast database of searchable lesson plans. More resources are also available by clicking here or visiting www.berkeleycountyschools.org →Quick Links → Cultural Observance Resources .
Exhibit Respectful Behavior DSS.6-8.3 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Identify and respect personal boundaries and privacy needs of self and others. • Respect all individuals as unique and worthy regardless of differences. • Use social and communication skills, dispositions, and character traits appropriate for various situations and audiences. 	6-8	The Connection Lab – (A Unit of 10 Modifiable Lessons) Subjects: Reading Language Arts, Social & Emotional Learning, ESL/ELL, Health & P.E. Topics: Empathy, Developing & Strengthening Peer Relationships, Communication Etiquette, Sharing, Sportsmanship, Healthy vs. Unhealthy Relationships, Diversity, Bullying Everybody Is Unique: A Lesson in Respect for Others Subjects: Arts & Humanities, Reading Language Arts, Visual Arts, Social Studies, Social & Emotional Learning, Psychology, ESL/ELL Topics: Respect, Diversity, Equality, Inclusion, Friendship, Empathy, Uniqueness Respect Popcorn Party Subjects: Language Arts, Literature, Visual Arts, Health, Social Studies & Civics Topics: Diversity, Respect, Bullying, Inclusion, Cooperation, Character, Communication Skills Positively Respectful Subjects: Reading Language Arts, Visual Arts, Health, Social Studies, ESL/ELL Topics: Diversity, Respect, Bullying, Citizenship, Manners, Communication Skills/Compliments Are You a Respectful Person? Subjects: Language Arts, Social Studies, Civics, Public Speaking, Social & Emotional Learning Topics: Respect, Bullying, Harassment, Courtesy, Inclusion, Diversity, Communication Skills Respectful Relationships: Respect, Gender and Power, Pages 149 – 151 Subjects: RLA, Health & P.E., Social & Emotional Learning, Media Literacy Topics: Respect, Stereotyping, Identity, Gender & Sexual Identity, Careers, Character Development

Lesson plans have been adapted from many resources as indicated in the various links.