

Equity and Inclusion Lesson Plans

Aligns with WV Dispositions and Standards for Student Success

Global Citizenship: Intercultural Perspectives

Student Success Standards	Searching for a specific, robust, ready to use classroom lesson on topics of diversity, social justice, and multiculturalism which also reinforces critical and socio-emotional learning skills? Then visit Teaching Tolerance , Zinn Education Project , or ADL websites which provide teachers with a vast database of searchable lesson plans. More resources are also available by clicking here or visiting www.berkeleycountyschools.org → Quick Links → Cultural Observance Resources .
Interact Respectfully with Diverse Cultures DSS.K-2.15 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Identify self as a member of groups within a community. • Understand similarities and respect differences among people, such as gender, race, disability, culture, language, and family structure. 	K-2	Who Is an Immigrant? Subjects: Reading & Language Arts, Art, Social Studies, ELL/ESL, Civics, Social & Emotional Learning Topics: Identity, Immigration, Anti-Bias, Justice, Diversity, Community, Respect Identity Artifacts Museum Subjects: Reading Language Arts, Social Studies, Social & Emotional Learning, Art Topics: Identity, Anti-Bias, Diversity, Family Structure, Culture, Gender, Justice, Social Identifiers Who Am I? Race Awareness Game (This is an App) Subjects: All Topics: Identity, Cultural and Global Awareness

Lesson plans have been adapted from many resources as indicated in the various links.