I may not be there yet, but I am closer than I was yesterday. ~ Author Unknown

Today's Woman of the Day is Hinaleimoana Wong-Kalu, presented to you by Women of Westerville.

Hinaleimoana, also known as Kumu Hina, is a transgender woman and mahu which is someone that has a third gender between female and male. They are known to be sources of wisdom in Hawaiian culture. Kumu Hina was born in the Nu'uuanu district of O'ahu and grew to be a hula teacher and cultural director at a school that still teaches Native Hawaiian culture. Kumu Hina always advocated for legalizing same sex marriage and did many great things like founding the Kulia Na Mamo organization. This woman is important to women's history because Kumu Hina celebrated where she came from and queerness in Native Hawaiian culture while also being one of the first transgender people to run for office at the Office of Hawaiian Affairs Board of Trustees.
