Dear Robert,

We're continuing to celebrate School Board Recognition Month here at the VSBA! On Thursday, February 9 at 3:00pm, the Vermont House of Representatives will recognize Vermont's school board members with the reading of a resolution. We invite all school board members to attend this reading. If you plan to be there, please let us know you are attending so that we can connect with you and thank you for your service.

If you missed last week's webinar "How School Boards Can Support Student Achievement and Close Gaps," we wanted to make sure you know the recording and handouts are available on the homepage of our website. The webinar had rave reviews from participants! Supporting student achievement and closing gaps is what being a school board member is all about. Based on the feedback from this webinar we are planning ways to provide more of this type of resource to members in the future.

BIPOC Affinity Group Meeting on Friday, March 3, 3:30-5 pm

VSBA is launching our first Affinity Group, and this is exclusively for BIPOC School Board Members. The first meeting will be by Zoom and explore what direction and guidelines the participants want to establish. Bonnie Johnson-Aten, a well-respected Vermont administrator and experienced facilitator, will help get the group off to a great start. Affinity Groups are spaces where individuals can relate with each other, share ideas and suggestions, and receive mutual support to help them do their work. We know how important it is to provide support for BIPOC teachers and administrators. We believe it is also valuable for school board members. If you or one of your fellow board members meet the criteria and would like to participate in this group, please click here to be added to our contact list. We will reach out to you personally with more information.

VSBA Seeks Director of Board Services

VSBA has a job opening for a Director of Board Services. Please see the VSBA home page for the job description and more information about the application process.

GOVERNANCE TIPS

Supports for Good Governance

By the time of adoption, Vermont's new Governance Standards will be well vetted by board members, administrators, state policy makers, and the general public. They will not be the be all, end all of good governance, but they will provide an essential starting place. Be thinking about the three main areas—Priorities, Protocols, and Processes. Consider:

1. Are your board's priorities clear, shared, and known throughout the district?
2. Do you have a recently reviewed or adopted written board operating protocol that supports the board's work? and
3. Are your board's processes clear, predictable, and known throughout the district?

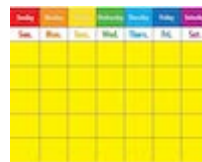

Reflection and attention to these three foundational areas of governance will keep your board focused on the things that matter most.
