

19.20 Confucius Classroom Expense Report

19.20 Confucius Classroom Expense Report
School Name:		North Carolina School of Science and Mathematics
Expense Period Dates	Name of person filling out this report	Itemized Expenses	Date	Price	Narrative: How did each expense contribute to the Chinese language program at your school?
Period 1: July 1- December 31	Elizabeth Moose	Books for Readings in Chinese with Topics	07/01/19	$20.36	This teaching resource is used by our two instructors of Chinese to enhance their lessons.
		Learning software for use in Chinese courses: Quizlet	08/02/19	$36.44	This teaching resource software is used by our two instructors of Chinese to enhance their lessons.
		Books for use in Chinese courses	08/20/19	$230.76	This teaching resource is used by our two instructors of Chinese to enhance their lessons.
		Online tools for use in Chinese courses: Purple Culture Chinese Tools, Skritter	08/20/19	$880.30	These teaching resources are used by our two instructors of Chinese to enhance their lessons.
		Printing and binding of course books for Chinese courses	08/20/19	$283.32	This teaching resource is used by our two instructors of Chinese to enhance their lessons.
		Membership American Council on the Teaching of Foreign Languages (ACTFL)	08/29/19	$45.00	This expenditure supported a valuable professional development opportunity for our instructor.
		American Council on the Teaching of Foreign Languages (ACTFL) Workshop, Full Certification, OPI Tester in Chinese	08/29/19	$350.00	This expenditure supported a valuable professional development opportunity for our instructor.
		Moon cakes for Chinese and Asian Studies students in celebration of the Mid-Autumn Festival	09/10/19	$97.19	These supplies brought to life for students in our Chinese language and Asian Studies courses an important Chinese festival. The food was the highlight of a lesson focused on the details and significance of the Chinese Mid-Autumn Festival.
		Food for students participating in the Global Understanding linked classes with China in September	09/16/19	$72.85	This food supported and enhanced the weekly interactive video educational and cultural exchange between students in our Intermediate Chinese classes and their Chinese student partners at the Hangzhou Foreign Languages School.
		DVDs for Asian Studies and Chinese	11/04/19	$15.66	This teaching resource is used by our instructors of Asian Studies and Chinese to enhance their lessons.
		Food for students participating in the Global Understanding linked classes with China in October	10/21/19	$45.10	This food supported and enhanced the weekly interactive video educational and cultural exchange between students in our Intermediate Chinese classes and their Chinese student partners at the Hangzhou Foreign Languages School.
		Food for students in Intermediate Chinese classes to practice taste and color words (salty, sweet, bitter, etc.)	11/10/19	$20.51	This food was part of a vocabulary lesson in our two Intermediate Chinese classes on adjectives associated with taste. The instructional goal was for students to feel the physical sensation of each taste (bitter, sweet, salty, etc.) and thus associate the new vocabulary words with lived experience in a meaningful, memorable, and lasting way.
		Food for students participating in the Global Understanding linked classes with China in November	11/18/19	$60.02	This food supported and enhanced the weekly interactive video educational and cultural exchange between students in our Intermediate Chinese classes and their Chinese student partners at the Hangzhou Foreign Languages School.
		Food for students participating in the Global Understanding linked classes with China in December	12/06/19	$48.50	This food supported and enhanced the weekly interactive video educational and cultural exchange between students in our Intermediate Chinese classes and their Chinese student partners at the Hangzhou Foreign Languages School.
		Supplies for iPad	12/13/19	$493.20	These are teaching resources used by our two instructors of Chinese to enhance their lessons.
Ingredients for dumpling-making in Chinese classes	12/16/19	$70.68	These expenditures supported an educational activity for our Chinese classes.
Period 2: January 1st- June 30th		Food for students participating in the Global Understanding linked classes with China in January	01/06/20	$25.34	This food supported and enhanced the weekly interactive video educational and cultural exchange between students in our Intermediate Chinese classes and their Chinese student partners at the Hangzhou Foreign Languages School.
		Commemorative t-shirts to celebrate partnership with Hangzhou Foreign Languages School	01/21/20	$723.30	These were institutional gifts from NCSSM to students and teachers from the Hangzhou Foreign Languages School. The exchange of hospitality and gifts are important parts of the bond between our institutions.
		Food for student celebrations, including Chinese New Year and making rice cakes	01/27/20	$278.86	These expenditures supported educational activities for our Chinese classes.
		Chinese reference books	01/27/20	$163.29	These are teaching resources used by our two instructors of Chinese to enhance their lessons and classrooms.
		Books for Advanced Readings in Chinese course	02/29/20	$94.50	This teaching resource is used by our two instructors of Chinese to enhance their lessons.

Total Remaining Balance from ALL years

$12,178.81

Food and supplies for students participating in the Global Understanding linked classes with China in February and March	03/05/20		This food supported and enhanced the weekly interactive video educational and cultural exchange between students in our Intermediate Chinese classes and their Chinese student partners at the Hangzhou Foreign Languages School.
		$45.58
Registration to attend AP Chinese Summer Institute	06/05/20		This expenditure supported a valuable professional development opportunity for our instructor.
		$720.00
19.20 Expenses Total		$4,820.76
19.20 Grant Income		$10,000.00
19.20 Remaining Balance		$5,179.24	