Know this that I am not responding to your email on behalf of the board of education. My colleagues will each have to respond if they feel they should. But what I will share will be my personal viewpoint.

First, not one hand of any individual, living or dead, is clean. We have all sinned and fallen short of the glory of God. But I would ask that you study the history of the Jewish nation and their involvement in slavery – financing the slave ships to bring Africans into the Americas and the Caribbeans. As I said no one's hands are clean.

So while I don't endorse many of the tenets by Black Lives Matter organization, the slogan is paramount for the uplift of a people who this world castigates, marginalizes and kills every day.

And, lastly, know that I don't condone what the Hamas terrorist has done, but as I continue to say, no one's hands are clean in this world. But let's look to forgive each other so that we can live in a world through Christ that will ensure our world is harmonious.

We are all humans trying to live as best we can in a fallen world.
