Hi [REDACTED],

I'm writing to make one final check-in regarding your request for the Alliance's support. If you would like to chat about the circumstances that initiated your request for support, we would be more than happy to get something on the calendar. Feel free to respond with your availability if you are interested.

I hope all is well!

Best,

Hello [REDACTED],

My name is [REDACTED], and I support the work of our Policy and Advocacy Manager, [REDACTED], here at the Alliance. Due to capacity limitations and an abundance of advocacy requests this school year, we have been stretched thin. I am writing to check back in regarding a few issues you reached out to us about in the past few months:

1. Enforcement of Public Act 102-0340 (mandate to provide menstrual hygiene products in all bathrooms free of charge)
2. Binders for members of the Diversity Club
3. Concerns about Yik Yak

Are these issues resolved, or do you still need support? If you would like to chat and strategize about any of the above, I am more than happy to schedule an intake consultation with [REDACTED]. Feel free to send along your availability if that sounds helpful. As a reminder, all of our advocacy and consultation services are free of charge.

Hi All!

Hope your Friday is going well! [REDACTED] I would like to introduce you to [REDACTED] (she/her), one of the Diversity Club advisors at Waterloo High School. [REDACTED] I would like to introduce you to [REDACTED] (they/them), our Policy & Advocacy Manager here at the Alliance Program.

I'm sending this introduction email because during the quarterly HS GSA Advisor Meetup yesterday afternoon, [REDACTED] shared that she had a question around something that happened at one of her Diversity Club meetings. As she described it, a few of her trans students aren't able to get binders at home due to their parents and at a recent Diversity Club meeting a few other students pooled together money to buy binders for those trans students and now [REDACTED] isn't quite sure what to do. [REDACTED] feel free to explain further. [REDACTED], I felt that you would provide a lot more helpful advice on this.

[REDACTED], also feel free to talk a little bit more about Yik Yak as I'm not entirely sure to what extent this problem goes.
