Hello hello,

Thank you so much for the kind words and for being with us tonight! The feedback was overwhelmingly positive! We had one booger with commentary throughout, but even they thanked us at the end. And two of your third grade teachers expressed their excitement to have us come in! Here is some of my favorite feedback from the chat:

“Before the chat room closes, I would like to thank you wholeheartedly for that wonderful and, I must admit, much needed presentation. I feel that as a parent, I stopped learning or feeling the need to learn about anything SOGIE-related when I got into college. However, you allowed me to realize that the world did not stop to evolve even if I unconsciously did (SOGIE-wise) and the window on the society our kiddos will blossom into that you opened for us tonight is a blessing. It is so different than the one I grew up into and therefore, my toolkit to teach my child is pretty much obsolete! Bravo and keep up with your good work. We are a better society because of people like you so generously sharing and caring!”

“Trans parent of a JP student here; very appreciative of the work you all are doing!”

Good stuff! Feel free to share the feedback with Dr. Tew if you feel it’s appropriate. We will send you the video file tomorrow so you can share it with the community, and we will also provide a resource packet for parents interested in continuing their learning.

Let us know what more we can do for you! 😊

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]
