

Newton South's 2023 LGBTQ+ Awareness Day

Tuesday, December 19

A block Lecture Hall	Student Panel on Intersectionality Students will discuss various aspects of their queer identity in relation to other aspects of their identity. 10 minutes will be provided at the end of the panel for audience questions. Please come prepared to actively listen and pose engaging questions.
B Block Lecture Hall	Student Panel on LGBTQ+ Media - Culture, Toxicity and Next Steps Students will discuss Queerness in media. Subtopics include: Forced outing, Queerbaiting, Toxic Culture, and Queer online trends. 10 minutes will be provided at the end of the panel for audience questions. Please come prepared to actively listen and pose engaging questions.
F Block Lecture Hall	Drag performance by Queen Jean Chandler Students will watch a performance by Drag Queen Jean Chandler (aka former Newton School Committee Member Matthew Miller). Jean will get into drag makeup for the first portion of the event while answering audience questions about drag, etc. Then Jean will perform a piece (rated PG-13, radio-friendly). Audience members should come prepared with questions to ask at the beginning and ready to enjoy this fun performance.
G Block Gym B	Queers and Allies at Newton South: Struggles and Triumphs Theater of the Oppressed Workshop by BU Prof. Ellie Friedland This block is invite only Participants will physically explore their assumptions, biases, and experiences related to various LGBTQIA+ identities, and IF there is time, some struggles and triumphs specifically at Newton South. Classes should expect 100% physical and verbal participation. This workshop will work best in conjunction with other events throughout the day.

