What about adding something about bias against LGBTQ+ community? Hate speech toward LGBTQ+ students?

Hey!

What adjustments would you suggest for this email?

Hello Pierce Staff!

In this email you will find the lesson guide for the second of four lessons about bias, as well as slides and the handout that students will need for the lesson.

Things to keep in mind:

1. This lesson is about exposure, and self reflection, more than mastery.
2. This lesson (and each lesson in the series) is a response to the reality that our students have biases and often treat others with bias.
3. You will be given time on November 1st to become familiar with the lesson so that you can teach it. Please use this time to carefully read the lesson guid, as well as the notes under the slides.
4. Examples of student biases at Pierce
 - white students using the n-word to describe Black students
 - white students calling Black students "monkey"
 - anti-semetic remarks made to Jewish students
