

We desperately need to have shelter based & possibly school based presentations covering legal, refugee resettlement basics and where to get basic services. I've heard from at least 4 different school officials asking for help and/or feeling like they aren't getting any support/communication from the city.

I would love to be a part of giving legal presentations and I'm pretty sure I could get someone to do the refugee resettlement piece. Is there anyway that some funds could be found for that purpose?

Sincerely,
