Subject : CCTV NEWS interview questions

Hi [REDACTED]

This is the other interview, you met them in China, they're CCTV. If you can, please reply to it today. They will use yours on the NEWS.

Thank you so much for joining the meeting this morning.

China Central Television is the national television broadcaster of China, established in 1958 as a propaganda outlet. Its 50 channels broadcast a variety of programming to more than one billion viewers in six languages.

1. President Xi praised the students on the beautiful Chinese characters in their letter and the hand-painted images of Chinese dragons, the Great Wall and pandas. He said that he was very happy to see that the students visited several cities in China, saw giant pandas, tasted Chinese food, experienced Chinese culture, and formed friendships with Chinese students. How do you feel about receiving his letter?

2. How do you evaluate your trip to China? What is your feeling? What are the most impressive things during this visit?

3. How have you seen Muscatine students grow through this trip? What have they gained? How will this help them in their future life?

4. According to the plan of President Xi, 50000 students will be invited to visit China. In the future, more young Americans, include Muscatine students will visit China. How do you think it will help promote friendship and understanding between the people of the two countries?
