Hey, there.

They reached out to introduce themselves, to offer their support of our district in general, and to specifically offer support/guidance in understanding the needs of our scholars (especially those identifying as members of the LGBTQ community). They mentioned concerns around the recent legislation focused on transgender scholars in sports, but didn't have a specific ask. I think they're trying to understand the landscape and determine our district commitment to serving and supporting all children.

Dr. Greene,

It was a pleasure meeting you last week. By way of follow up, can you make an introduction to your District General Counsel/Title IX coordinator?

Kind regards - [REDACTED]
