*to say we must
be not guilty just
as of love and light
the youthful light
that has not been
blown, the proof is gone
back to the heart
of each child's heart
to say we must
be not guilty just
the youthful light
that has not been
back to the heart
be not guilty just
the youthful light
that has not been
back to the heart

a quiet

the ground is green

the white birds bloom
of flowers
with a sense
of love
and a sense
of love*
