To Whom It May Concern,

We received your request for records. I apologize for the delay, as I was out of the office.

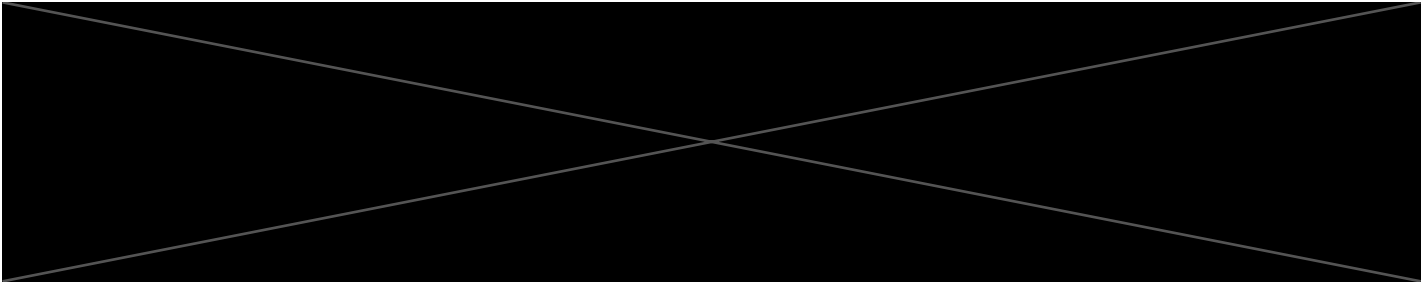

I'm happy to provide you with the acknowledgement statements that we use. Please see the language below:

We acknowledge the Indigenous Native Americans on whose ancestral land we meet today. We thank and honor the elders, ancestors, communities, and children of the Native Communities still connected to this land!

We acknowledge the contributions and achievements of enslaved Africans and their ascendants and descendants to our country. We thank and acknowledge the full humanity of a people who shaped America.

We acknowledge victims and survivors of violence, assaults, and trauma of all types. We honor you and affirm your experiences. Victims and survivors, seen and unseen, in this room and outside of it.

We acknowledge that sexual orientation, gender identity, and gender expression are distinct and dynamic concepts. We welcome and honor all gender identities, and we thank and acknowledge the full humanity and the contribution of all individuals.
