Pre Teach-In material to show students

Depending on what you've already discussed in class. Please make sure you prepare students in some way for the panel and are clear that what they will see/hear are a few perspectives on how the Palestinian struggle is relevant in the Bay Area but by no means comprehensive or definitive on this issue.

If you have trouble playing videos, make sure you are signed into your OUSD account (not your personal email) on YouTube

- Gaza explainer video [15 min... considering showing before the panel if your students are less familiar with the situation in Gaza]
- Explainer slides for a 15-20 min class discussion

Panelists

Speakers from Palestinian Youth Movement, Jewish Voice for Peace, and Black Alliance for Peace will share their perspectives!

Slides

PART 1: Prepared questions for panelists

1. Introductions - each panelist shares their name, connection to the Bay Area (or wherever you're joining us from), organizations or organizing work you're part of
2. What does Palestinian freedom mean to you? How are you engaged with the Palestinian freedom struggle?
3. How does the war in Gaza impact people, especially students and families, in Oakland and other cities in America? Why is this issue important to discuss?
4. Can you talk about what you see as the role of young people in this moment?

PART 2: Q&A from students
