Thank you Ussama. Yes, last night I saw on social media that you will be at a teach in in Houston. And I think one of my students attended the Berkeley teach in you spoke at yesterday evening. She told me they had to be masked to avoid doxxing. It's horrendous!

I wish you much patience and courage in these difficult times! Please let me know if there is anything I can do.

Best,
Dzovinar

Dear Dzovinar,
I wanted to go to this but I'm now flying to Houston for a teach in on Gaza. We each do what we can to avert what is really genocide. Incredible. And the liberal West is so brazen about supporting Israel.

Subject: Online Conversation

Salam Ussama,

I would like to set-up an online conversation on Streamyard to focus on the unfolding Genocide and Nakba. We can work on the questions to have maximum benefit to the audience. I can get a solid response online for it on all the platforms that we have and help us get more content for people and ways to respond.

Hatem
