Hello,

My name is [REDACTED] I am autistic, and I serve as Vice President for Fulbrighters with Disabilities. Because of my position, I am on the DEI board for the Fulbright Association.

There has been talk of having a series or panel in response to the Israel-Palestine conflict. It would seem that I am the sole Jewish voice of reason and thus the only member willing to confront the Zionist narrative which is working hard to take hold of Fulbright. I am trying my best to guide this process to ensure that academic integrity and our commitment to international understanding are not sacrificed.

I feel that your participation would be critical in this endeavor and I hope that you will consider being a part of this. I've already received a positive response from Norman Finkelstein and plan to reach out to Edward Said and others.
Please let me know if I could count on your wonderfully compelling voice.

In solidarity with all victims of systemic violence,

[REDACTED]
Vice President
Fulbrighters with Disabilities
