

CA-Ethnic Studies		Scope and Sequence
Unit	Lesson	Objectives
Identity
Ethnicity and Ethnic Studies
		Define ethnicity.
		Explain the educational purpose of ethnic studies.
Factors Shaping Identity
		Identify the factors that contribute to the formation of individual and collective identities.
		Explain the role of intersectionality in identity formation.
Assimilation, Acculturation, and Accommodation
		Describe the processes, motivations, and effects of assimilation and cultural erasure.
		Describe the roles of acculturation and accommodation in creating a multicultural society.
		Explain the benefits and challenges of code-switching.
Circumstances and Choices
		Analyze how circumstances influence personal and societal choices.
		Explain the concept of White privilege.
Challenging Stereotypes and Building Empathy
		Evaluate the impact of stereotypes on individuals and communities.
		Differentiate between empathy and sympathy.
Identity Exploration in Ethnic Studies
		Distinguish among personal and social attributes that influence identity.
		Describe how personal and social identities influence a person's perspective and experiences.
		Identify visual representations that highlight intersectionality of personal and social identities.
		Explain how to write a reflection on influences shaping your own identity.

CA-Ethnic Studies		Scope and Sequence
Unit	Lesson	Objectives
	Unit Test
Race and Ethnicity in the US
	Indigenous in the US
		Explain the history and demography of Indigenous peoples in the US.
		Describe challenges faced by Indigenous peoples in the US.
		Explain the cultural significance and impact of Indigenous peoples in the US.
	Black in the US
		Explain the history and demography of Black people in the US.
		Describe challenges faced by Black people in the US.
		Explain the cultural significance and impact of Black people in the US.
	Asian in the US
		Explain the demography of Asians in the US.
		Describe the history of and the challenges faced by Asians in the US.
		Explain the cultural significance and impact of Asians in the US.
	Native Hawaiian and Pacific Islander in the US
		Explain the history and demography of Native Hawaiians and Pacific Islanders in the US.
		Describe challenges faced by Native Hawaiians and Pacific Islanders in the US.
		Explain the cultural significance and impact of Native Hawaiians and Pacific Islanders in the US.
	Latino in the US
		Explain the history and demography of Latinos in the US.
		Explain circumstances that affect Latinos in the US.
		Explain the cultural significance and impact of Latinos in the US.

CA-Ethnic Studies		Scope and Sequence
Unit	Lesson	Objectives
	Middle Eastern and North African in the US	Explain the history and demography of people of the Middle East and North Africa in the US. Describe challenges faced by people of the Middle East and North Africa in the US. Explain the cultural significance and impact of people of the Middle East and North Africa in the US.
	White in the US	Identify demographic trends for the White population in the US. Describe the evolving definition of the term "White" in the US. Explain the dichotomy of being ethnic White.
	Analyzing Media Through an Ethnic Studies Lens	Explain how to analyze media. Explain how to analyze data. Describe how to develop a multimedia presentation. Analyze representations of race and ethnicity in media.
	Unit Test
Movement
	Understanding History and Movement	Define the concepts of "history" and "movement" as they relate to ethnic studies. Explain the impact of migration on the identities of individuals and communities in the US.
	Case Study: Indigenous Removal	Describe the causes, effects, and challenges of Cherokee removal and the Trail of Tears. Explain how cultural preservation and adaptation have influenced modern Cherokee identity. Describe the impact of the Trail of Tears on generations of Cherokee people.

CA-Ethnic Studies		Scope and Sequence
Unit	Lesson	Objectives
	Case Study: Second Great Migration
		Describe opportunities the Second Great Migration provided for Black Americans.
		Explain how the Second Great Migration reshaped Black identity.
	Exclusion and Belonging: Immigration Policies and Acts
		Describe the evolution of US immigration policies and acts.
		Explain the effects of US immigration policies and acts on notions of exclusion and belonging.
	Case Study: Southeast Asian Refugee Crisis
		Describe the Vietnam War, its aftermath, and the resulting migration of Southeast Asian populations to the US.
		Describe the formation of Southeast Asian communities and their contributions to American society.
		Explain the challenges and triumphs experienced by Southeast Asian migrants and refugees in the US.
	Case Study: Migrants and Refugees from Latin America
		Explain the push and pull factors that influence Latin American migration.
		Describe the lived experience of immigrants from Latin America.
		Analyze how the migrant and refugee experience impacts identity.
	Case Study: Populations Displaced by War and Genocide
		Describe the causes, effects, and challenges of displacement.
		Describe the experiences of displaced Bosnians who were resettled in the US.
	Mapping Local Migration
		Describe how data can be used to identify spatial patterns of human migration.
		Analyze historical records to understand migration and its effects on a place.

CA-Ethnic Studies		Scope and Sequence
Unit	Lesson	Objectives
		Explain how to visually represent migration to a place.
	Unit Test
	Systems of Power
	Systems of Power
		Explain various systems of power and how they interact.
		Describe the historical development of systems of power and their implications in the context of the United States.
	Women and Femmes of Color in Oppressive Systems
		Explain the levels of societal oppression.
		Describe how intersectionality shapes the distribution and exercise of power.
		Examine the unique challenges faced by women and femmes of color within systems of oppression.
	Housing Inequality
		Explain the historical roots of housing inequality in the US.
		Analyze the long-term effects of housing inequality on communities of color.
	Political Power, Political Inequality
		Explain the concept of political power and representation in the context of US governance.
		Describe the historical barriers to political power for various ethnic groups.
		Analyze current issues of political inequality.
	Economic Inequality
		Explain economic inequality.
		Analyze the relationship between intersectionality and economic inequality.
		Describe the benefits and limitations of programs designed to address economic inequality.

CA-Ethnic Studies		Scope and Sequence
Unit	Lesson	Objectives
	Environmental Inequality
		Explain the concept of environmental inequality.
		Analyze the causes and consequences of environmental inequality.
	Campaigning for Environmental Justice
		Describe how to investigate a local environmental justice issue that disproportionately affects marginalized communities.
		Explain how to develop a comprehensive policy campaign to address and raise awareness about the issue.
	Unit Test
Social Movements and Equity
	Collective Power and Social Change
		Differentiate between equality and equity.
		Describe the characteristics of social movements.
		Analyze the skills and strategies necessary for effective participation in social movements.
	Case Study: Civil Rights Movement
		Analyze key events that advanced civil rights activism.
		Explain the goals, tactics, key figures, and events of the civil rights movement.
		Describe the outcomes and broader trajectory of the civil rights movement toward racial equality in the US.
	Case Study: Chicano Movement
		Explain the importance of the United Farm Workers and the Delano grape strike.
		Describe the emergence and significance of the Chicano movement.
		Describe the roles, contributions, and impact of advocates of Latino rights.
	Case Study: American Indian Movement (AIM)

CA-Ethnic Studies		Scope and Sequence
Unit	Lesson	Objectives
		Explain the goals of Indigenous activists and the American Indian Movement of the 1960s and 1970s.
		Describe the strategies and tactics used by activists during the American Indian Movement.
		Describe the roles, contributions, and impact of advocates for Indigenous rights.
	Modern Movements and Social Change
		Describe modern social movements' goals, strategies, and achievements.
		Discuss the challenges and opportunities of modern social movements.
		Explain the impact of social media and digital platforms in mobilizing support and spreading awareness.
	Resistance and Artistic Expression
		Explain how art can be a powerful force for change.
		Analyze the role of art in social movements.
		Explain how to curate an art exhibit focused on work from a specific social movement.
	Unit Test
Cumulative Exam
	Cumulative Exam Review
	Cumulative Exam	