Bail:

Do you have access to resources that you could use to post bail? Are there people we could contact to help fundraise?

If you are given a cash bail amount, do you want us to try to bail you out immediately?

Do you want us to wait to talk to you? Does this answer change depending on the amount?

How do you feel about going through a bail bondsman?

If we need to fundraise to get everyone out, are you OK being deprioritized in order to let others get out faster?

In the event that you end up staying in jail for longer than a few days:

Do you want us to put money on your commissary or phone account?

Are there any books you want sent to you?

Knowing that we can't control what other sources post, what (if anything) do you want broader political community and/or media to know about your arrest? (this may be for phone zaps, fundraising, etc and could include: your charges, your name, wait to talk to you, nothing, etc.)

Anything else? (Call out of work, take care of pets, re-park your car, etc)

Will you need help finding a place to stay once you're released?

Is there anything in particular you would like to have right when you get out of jail
(e.g. favorite snacks or meals; dream big, but recognize that we will be trying our best)

Any other notes or requests?
